stitution :Inspector shall report opinion to Court after examination,

1. Section 106 of "The Companies Act, 1899," is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor :

" 106.—Upon the conclusion of the examination the inspectors shall report their opinion to the Court, such report shall be printed or written as the Court directs ; a copy shall be forwarded by the Court to the registered office of the Company and a further copy shall, at the request of the members upon whose application the inspection was made, be delivered to them or any one or more of them. All expenses of and incidental to any such examination, as aforesaid, shall be defrayed by the members upon whose application the inspectors were appointed, unless the Court shall direct the same to be paid out of the assets of the Company."

Repeal and substitution :Companies, &c., heretofore incorporated may be registered.

2. Section 229 of the said Act is hereby repealed, and the following is substituted therefor :

" 229.—Every Company, Association or Society heretofore incorporated in pursuance of any Act of the Legislature and consisting of three or more members, and every Company incorporated by a special Act of the Legislature and consisting of three or more members, may register itself under Part V. of "The Companies Act, 1899," as a Company limited by shares, a Company limited by guarantee, as an Association under section 3 of this Act, or as an Unlimited Company, as the case may be, and no such registration shall be invalid by reason that it has taken place with a view to the Company being wound up.

3. Where any association is about to be formed as a limited company, if it proves to the Governor in Council that it is formed for the purpose of promoting commerce, art, science, religion, charity, or any other useful object, and that it is the intention of such association to apply the profits, if any, or other income of the association, in promoting its objects, and to prohibit the payment of any dividend to the members of the association, the Governor in Council may, by license under the hand of the Colonial Secretary, direct such association to be registered with limited liability, without the addition of the word limited to its name, and such association may be registered accordingly, and upon registration shall enjoy all the privileges and be subject to the obligations by this Act imposed on limited companies, with the exceptions that none of the provisions of this Act that require a limited company to use the word limited as any part of its name or to publish its name, or to send a list of its members, directors or managers to the registrar, shall apply to an association so registered.

The license by the Governor in Council may be granted upon such conditions and subject to such regulations as the Governor in Council thinks fit to impose, and such conditions and regulations shall be binding on the association, and may, at the option of the Governor in Council, be inserted in the memorandum and articles of association or in both or one of such documents.

4. Section 65 and sub-section (c) of section 8, of the said Repeal Act, are hereby repealed.

5. This Act shall be read with "The Companies Act, Construction, 1899," and form part thereof as if incorporated therewith, and both Acts may be cited as "The Companies Act, 1899."
